

ABOUT ATV

ALTERNATIVES TO VIOLENCE

Alternatives to Violence was established in 1983 and is registered with the Colorado Secretary of State as a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Since 1983, Alternatives to Violence has offered victims the opportunity to heal both emotionally and physically in a supportive environment. Each year, we provide emergency shelter, safety planning, advocacy, information and referrals to local resources, crisis intervention, and in some cases longer-term housing to over 800 people.

Mission

Alternatives to Violence provides shelter, advocacy, education and resources for people impacted by domestic violence, sexual assault and human trafficking.

Vision

Alternatives to Violence envisions a safe community free from domestic violence, sexual assault and human trafficking.

Services offered to the community free:

- Emergency Shelter
- 24 hour crisis intervention/victim advocates
- Court Advocates
- Housing resource services
- Referrals and resource information
- Community education programs

*Thank you to sponsors of our fundraising events,
to community groups for volunteer hours
and for the continued care and financial donations from many caring individuals.*

YOUR PARTICIPATION

Raising funds to continue to provide services to victims is a challenge that we embrace as our responsibility and we need your help to do it.

Your participation helps ATV maintain and operate an Emergency SafeHouse of hope and healing for the victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and human trafficking. With your help families and individuals will be able to remain in this community. The SafeHouse provides a refuge from the violence and victimization leading towards empowerment and survival for families in need.

The SafeHouse provides:

- A safe refuge for victims of violence
- 24 hour crisis intervention, emergency services, advocacy, and safety planning
- A 8,666 square foot house with:
- 8 Bedrooms (2 ADA accessible rooms)
- 3 Bathrooms
- A Community Kitchen and Dining Area
- A Laundry Room
- Meeting and Play Rooms
